Nicolas Costa joins VSR Lamborghini Formula Junior Team

27th March 2015

Vincenzo Sospiri Racing is delighted to announce that the number 63 car entered in the Japanese Formula 4 Championship will be driven by Brazilian Nicolas Costa. He joins Japanese driver Takuro Shinohara in the two car VSR Lamborghini Squadra Corse Formula Junior Team which will make its debut at Okayama next weekend in the opening round of the Championship. Costa's relationship with Vincenzo Sospiri began in 2010 when he made his European single-seater debut with Euronova Racing and won the Formula Abarth Winter Trophy. Further success followed for the partnership and the 23 year old from Rio de Janeiro went on to be crowned European and Italian Formula Abarth Champion in 2012.

Nicolas Costa with the VSR management team.

Nicolas Costa: I'm very happy about this opportunity with VSR and Lamborghini Squadra Corse and will do my best to be at the front. I'm looking forward to the start of the Championship and to learning a new lifestyle and culture.

Vincenzo Sospiri: I'm very pleased to be able to give this opportunity to Nicolas. He is a driver who always gives the best of himself and who makes the most of every chance. We have worked together in the past so I know that he gives 110% every time he gets in the car. He has the speed, talent and desire to succeed and I hope that this will be the first step for him towards becoming a professional driver.
